RIJEČ DOBRODOŠLICE

WELCOME WORDS

S velikim ponosom i iznimnim uzbudjenjem želimo vam dobrodošlicu na prvo izdanje Festivala tolerancije u Zadru.

Ovaj značajan događaj rezultat je uzbudljive suradnje između dvije posvećene organizacije: Festivala suvremenog židovskog filma iz Zagreba (Festivala tolerancije), koji već dugo promiče važnost tolerancije i društvene pravde kroz filmsku umjetnost, te Centra nezavisne kulture Zadar (Kino Zone), važnog aktera razvoja civilnog društva, kulture i audiovizualne umjetnosti u Zadarskoj županiji.

Ponosni smo što možemo predstaviti ovaj festival kao platformu za dijalog, kritičko mišljenje i jačanje zajednice. Borba za ljudska prava je globalno putovanje—putovanje koje ovdje, u Zadru, s bogatom poviješću otpornosti i otvorenosti prema svijetu, snažno odjekuje. Pripremili smo program koji odražava raznolikost ljudskog iskustva. U četiri festivalska dana predstavljamo vam filmove, Tolerance Talk rasprave, edukacijske programe i Festival Market. Svi segmenti zajedno imaju transformativnu moć koja povezuje kulture i epohe, povezujući nas i podsjećajući nas na zajedničku prošlost, sadašnjost, na humanost i na toleranciju.

Posebno želimo zahvaliti generalnom pokrovitelju festivala Gradu Zadru, partnerima UNHCR Hrvatska, Hrvatskom audiovizualnom centru, Zadarskoj županiji, Turističkoj zajednici Zadar, Veleposlanstvu Ujedinjene Kraljevine Velike Britanije i Sj. Irske u RH te Kontakt točki programa Građani, jednakost, prava i vrijednosti (CERV) Ureda za udruge Vlade RH. Zahvaljujemo medijskim partnerima 24 sata i Hrvatskoj radioteleviziji i svima ostalima koji su nam ukazali povjerenje i podržavali naše programe kroz godine.

Mi, festivalski ljudi, željno очekujemo ovogodišnju publiku jer svaka vaša reakcija, svaki uzdah, suza ili smijeh, nama će biti vrijedna nagrada za uloženi trud. Posebno smo zahvalni našem selektorskom timu Snježani Tribuson i Bošku Piculi koji su pomno odabrali ovogodišnji program, a kojem je umjetnički doprinijela umjetnička savjetnica Dina Pokrajac. Na njihovoj predanosti, i prije svega posvećenosti, neizmjereno smo zahvalni.

Dok otvaramo prvo izdanje Festivala u Zadru, radujemo se razgovorima i prijateljstvima koje će proizaći iz nadolazećih dana. Neka nas nadahnu priče koje vidimo, neka nas pokrene hrabrost onih koji se zauzimaju za druge, i neka budemo ujedinjeni u našoj odlučnosti da budemo bolji ljudi.

Hvala vam što ste s nama na ovom putovanju. Dobrodošli na prvi Festival tolerancije u Zadru i neka nas duh pravde i ljudskog dostojanstva vodi tijekom našeg zajednički provedenog vremena.

Hvala vam.
Nataša Popović i Andrej Fric

It is with great pride and tremendous excitement that we welcome you to the first edition of the Festival of Tolerance in Zadar.

This important event is the result of an exciting collaboration between two dedicated organizations: the Jewish Film Festival Zagreb (Festival of Tolerance), which has long promoted the importance of tolerance and social justice through the art of movie-making, and Alliance of Independent Culture Centre (Kino Zona), an important agent in the advancement of civil society, culture and audiovisual art in Zadar County.

We are proud to present this festival as a platform for dialogue, critical thinking and fostering community involvement. The fight for human rights is a global journey - a journey that reverberates strongly here in Zadar, a city rich in history of resilience and openness to the world. We have prepared a program that reflects the diversity of the human experience. In four festival days, we present films, Tolerance Talk discussions, educational programs and the Festival Market. All segments put together have a transformative power to link cultures and periods in time, to bring us closer and remind us of a common past and present, of humanity and tolerance.

We would especially like to thank the general sponsor of the festival, the City of Zadar, our partners UNHCR Croatia, the Croatian Audiovisual Centre, Zadar County, the Zadar Tourist Board, the Embassy of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, and the Contact Point of the Citizens, Equality, Rights and Values (CERV) program of the Office for Cooperation with NGOs of the Government of the Republic of Croatia. We would like to thank our media partners 24 Sata, Croatian Radiotelevision, as well as everyone else who has placed their trust in us and supported our programs over the years.

We, the festival people, are eagerly awaiting this year's audience because every reaction, every sigh, tear or laugh, will be a valuable reward for our efforts. Special thanks go to our curators Snježana Tribuson and Boško Picula, who meticulously curated this year's program with additional artistic contributions by artistic advisor Dina Pokrajac. We immensely appreciate their devotion and above all dedication.

As we open the first edition of the Festival in Zadar, we are looking forward to the conversations sparked and friendships made in the days to come. May we be inspired by the stories we get to see, may we be moved by the courage of those who stand up for others, and may we be united in our determination to be better people.

We are grateful to you for sticking around with us on this journey. Welcome to the first Festival of Tolerance in Zadar and let the spirit of justice and human dignity guide you during our time together.

Thank You.
Nataša Popović and Andrej Fric

RIJEČ DOBRODOŠLICE GRADONAČELNIKA GRADA ZADRA ZADAR MAYOR'S WELCOME SPEECH

Čast mi je što Festival tolerancije svoju punoljetnost obilježava baš u Zadru, gradu koji je oduvijek bio mjesto susreta različitih kultura, gradu povijesnog Zadarskog mira, gradu kojem se ljudi rado vraćaju i svjedoče kulturnom napretku kroz stoljeća.

Nažalost bili smo i svjedoci različitih ratova i sukoba kroz stoljeća, nasilnih pojedinaca i politika, svjedoci netrpeljivosti. No Zadar se na kraju uvijek pokazao sigurna oaza onima kojima je bila potrebna sigurna i mirna luka. Ipak, ne smijemo biti nijemi i slijepi svjedoci vremena u kojem se nalazimo. Društvo smo brzog tehnološkog napretka, ali i društvo otuđenosti. O toj otuđenosti, manama i problemima moramo jasno i glasno progovorati i pronaći rješenja kako bismo u nasljeđe generacijama koje dolaze ostavili temelje zdravog i kvalitetnog društva.

Gradu Zadru društvo netrpeljivosti, netolerancije i isključivosti nije opcija stoga ćemo uvijek podupirati programe koji promiču mir, svjesno, tolerantno društvo, društvo napretka, svega onog što Festival tolerancije promiće.

Čestitam organizatorima na izvrsnom programu. 28 pažljivo biranih filmskih projekcija, Festival Market, edukacije i Tolerance Talk rasprave pokazuju kako ovaj festival osluškuje društvo u kojem se nalazi i ne zatvara oči pred izazovima modernog doba. Kako jedan od naslova filma ovog Festivala kaže „U retrovizoru“ neka bude snažna poruka za sve one utege netrpeljivosti iz prošlosti koje se pojavljuju u sadašnjosti da kroz ovakve programe pronađemo rješenja i ne ostavimo ih kao utege budućnosti.

Čestitam Vam punoljetnost! Neka rasprave budu argumentirane i konstruktivne, filmovi upozorenje, inspiracija i opomena, a Festival market mjesto susreta različite filmske i kulturne scene koja nadahnjuje i stvara temelje zdrave budućnosti.

Dobro nam došli!
Branko Dukić, gradonačelnik Grada Zadra

It is an honour that the Festival of Tolerance is marking its coming-of-age anniversary in Zadar, a city that has always been a meeting place of different cultures, a city of historical significance where a peace treaty was signed, a city where people love to go back and witness cultural evolution through the centuries.

Unfortunately, we have also been witnesses to various wars and conflicts throughout history, to violent individuals and politics, witnesses to intolerance. But eventually, Zadar has always proved to be a safe refuge for those who sought a place of safe and peaceful haven. Nevertheless, we should not be deaf and blind witnesses of the times we live in. We are a society of rapid innovations in technology, but also a society of alienation. We have to speak loud and clear about this alienation, flaws and problems and work out solutions in order to lay the sound foundations for a better society as a legacy for generations to come.

A society of intolerance, animosity and non-inclusivity is not an option for the city of Zadar, so we are always going to support programs that encourage peace, social conscience and open-mindedness, that foster a progressive society, everything that the Festival of Tolerance promotes.

My congratulations to the organizers for an amazing line-up. 28 carefully selected film screenings, the Festival Market, educational program and Tolerance Talk discussions show that this festival pays heed to the society around us and does not turn a blind eye to the challenges of modern times. There is a film that is opening this Festival entitled In the Rearview. We wish this film title would convey a strong message about all those strains of intolerance from the past that come back to haunt us in the present. For this reason, we should seek solutions in programs like this one rather than turn our back on them and leave them hanging as strains in the future.

Congratulations on your coming of age! We hope the discussions turn out to be argumentative and constructive. We expect the films to serve as a warning, a cautionary tale and a reminder. We look forward to the Festival Market becoming a venue for diverse film and cultural scene meetings, providing inspiration and building the cornerstones of a healthy future.

We warmly welcome you to this event!
Branko Dukić, Mayor of Zadar

FESTIVAL TOLERANCIJE

FESTIVAL OF TOLERANCE

Platforma Festival tolerancije punih 17 godina pruža otvoreni, kreativni prostor članovima, umjetnicima, gostima te široj javnosti, potičući ih na izražavanje, angažiranje povezanost u umjetnosti i društvu.

Festival tolerancije održava se od 2007. godine kada je osnovan kao prvi Festival židovskog filma u regiji. Od početka pa do kraja života, 2019. godine, predsjednik festivala bio je Branko Lustig, dvostruki Oskarovac i jedan od najistaknutijih filmskih radnika s ovih prostora.

2011. godine Festival židovskog filma, na prijedlog publike, mijenja ime u Festival tolerancije – JFF Zagreb. Punih 17 godina održavao se kontinuirano u Zagrebu te je svoja mini izdanja održao 17 puta, u Rijeci te u drugim državama: Austrija, Slovenija, Bosna i Hercegovina, Crna Gora i Srbija. Festival je surađivao s brojnim filmskim festivalima poput Sarajevo Film Festivala (BiH), Let'S Cee Film Festivala (AT), UK Jewish Film Festivala iz Londona (UK).

Nastojanja Festivala tolerancije prepoznali su brojni ugledni svjetski filmski autori koji su na festivalu tijekom godina dolazili predstaviti svoje filmove, odnosno koji su mu izrijekom pružili potporu (Steven Spielberg, Volker Schlöndorff, Liam Neeson, Stellan Skarsgård, István Szabó, Karl Markovics, Ralph Fiennes, Markus Schleinzer, Marina Gera i brojni drugi).

Do danas Festival broji više od 300.000 posjetitelja, a ukupno se u organizaciji Udruge nositelja projekta održao 34 puta.

Platforma također provodi hvaljene i široko prepoznate obrazovne programe od 2009. godine za učenike osnovnih i srednjih škola koji svake godine dopiru do tisuća mlađih.

Prakticiramo otvoreni dijalog i zajednički želimo stvoriti kvalitetniji suživot te ove godine u Zadru, uz edukacije za mlađe, nudimo dvije rasprave, jedna na temu integracije izbjeglica a druga na temu prevencije vršnjačkog nasilja.

Članice platforme koju čine udruga građana Festival s vremenog židovskog filma Zagreb i Zajednica udruga Centar nezavisne kulture iz Zadra (Kino Zona) usredotočene su na uključivanje zajednice, posebice djece i mlađih, te na aktivno uključivanje volontera na projektu koji ove godine nudi, uz filmove, edukacije i rasprave, i priliku da upoznate renomirane filmske festivale na Festival Marketu.

For the past 17 years, the Festival of Tolerance platform has been providing room for creativity to its members, artists, guests and the general public, encouraging them to express themselves and get involved in art and society.

The Festival of Tolerance has been held since 2007, when it was founded as the first Jewish Film Festival in the region. From its beginnings until he passed in 2019, the president of the festival was Branko Lustig, a two-time Oscar winner and one of the most prominent filmmakers from this part of the world.

In 2011, the Jewish Film Festival audience proposed to rename it into the Festival of Tolerance – JFF Zagreb. During the course of 17 years, it ran continuously in Zagreb and held its mini-editions 17 times in Rijeka and other countries: Austria, Slovenia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Montenegro and Serbia. The festival has collaborated with many other film festivals such as the Sarajevo Film Festival (BiH), Let's Cee Film Festival (Vienna, AT), the UK Jewish Film Festival from London (UK).

The efforts of the Festival of Tolerance have been recognized by a number of renowned world filmmakers who have come to the festival over the years to present their films, or who have explicitly supported it, including Steven Spielberg, Volker Schlöndorff, Liam Neeson, Stellan Skarsgård, István Szabó, Karl Markovics, Ralph Fiennes, Markus Schleinzer and Marina Gera.

To this date, the Festival has attracted more than 300,000 visitors, and it has been held a total of 34 times organized by the same association.

Since 2009 the platform has also run acclaimed and broadly acknowledged educational programs for primary and secondary school students that reach out to thousands of young people every year.

We practice open dialogue and together we strive to create a better coexistence. With this in mind, we offer two panel discussions in addition to educational programs for young people in Zadar this year. Their topics are refugee integration and the prevention of peer violence.

The platform members comprise the Jewish Film Festival Zagreb and the Community of Alliance of Independent Culture Centre from Zadar (Kino Zona). Our focus is on fostering community involvement, especially among children and youth, and on active volunteer engagement in the project. Along with screening a wide range of films and hosting educational programs and discussions, this year opens up the opportunity to get to know famous film festivals at the Festival Market.

FILMSKI PROGRAM

FILM PROGRAM

Filmski program Festivala tolerancije tradicionalno čine aktuelni filmovi prikazani na najznačajnijim svjetskim festivalima (Sundance Film Festival, Berlin International Film Festival, Cannes Film Festival, Karlovy Vary International Film Festival, Sheffield International Documentary Festival) i nagrađeni najprestižnijim svjetskim nagradama. U sastavljanju programa brinu se selektori Boško Picula, Snježana Tribuson te umjetnička savjetnica Dina Pokrajac. U programu su u velikoj mjeri zastupljeni kvalitetni europski i svjetski filmovi često nedostupni u redovnim kino programima. Vrijednost programu pridodaju i nacionalne premijere pojedinih domaćih i inozemnih filmova, dok se gotovo svi filmovi premijerno prikazuju u Zadru.

Uz izuzetnu umjetničku vrijednost, filmovi se ističu obradom društveno aktualnih tema i problema manjinskih i marginaliziranih skupina. Time otvaraju prostor za dublje promišljanje i raspravu, bilo s autorima filma ili stručnjacima iz relevantnih područja. Osim aktualnih društvenih pojava, neki filmovi tematiziraju i holokaust.

The film program of the Festival of Tolerance traditionally consists of the latest films screened at the world's leading festivals (Sundance Film Festival, Berlin International Film Festival, Cannes Film Festival, Karlovy Vary International Film Festival, Sheffield International Documentary Festival) and awarded the most prestigious prizes in the world. The film lineup, selected by curators Boško Picula, Snježana Tribuson and artistic advisor Dina Pokrajac, largely includes high-quality European and world films, often unavailable in regular cinema showings. National premieres of certain domestic and foreign films give additional value to the program, while almost all films will have their opening nights in Zadar.

Besides their unique artistic value, the films stand out for their treatment of socially relevant issues and problems of minority and marginalized groups. This provides an avenue for deeper reflection and discussion, not only with filmmakers but also with experts in the fields concerned. In addition to current social phenomena, some films cover the Holocaust.

SPEKTAR

Program Spektar predstavlja selekciju aktualnih i značajnih igranih filmova koji tematiziraju Holokaust, ljudska prava i aktualne društvene probleme. U programu Spektar prikazujemo filmove visokih producijskih standarda te istodobno lako razumljivih i naglašeno atraktivnih, dakle namijenjenih široj publici. Prilikom selekcije filmova posebna se pozornost usmjerila na filmove iz tzv. svjetskoga festivalskog kruga, nagrađivane na prestižnim festivalima.

UGRIZ STVARNOSTI

Festival tolerancije bio bi nezamisliv bez dokumentarnih filmova. Program nazvan Ugriz stvarnosti u prvi plan stavlja kvalitetu, neposrednost, odmjerenost i snagu koju dobar dokumentarac uvijek ima, a cilj je prikazati globalnost i univerzalnost individualnih problema.

SAMO KRATKO

Kratki filmski metar sažima emocije, ideje i vizuale u kratko, ali snažno iskustvo, ostavljajući trajni dojam u nekoliko minuta. Obilje filmova, autora, umjetničkih postupaka i pristupa posljednjih su godina od kratkometražnih filmova napravili pravu kreativnu džunglu kroz koju je jednostavno pronaći vlastiti put, zato što su njezina gustoća i obilje zavodljivo bogati.

MALI KORACI

Djeca danas žive u obilju audiovizualnog sadržaja, no ono što im kronično nedostaje su smjernice za njihovo konzumiranje. Medijska je pismenost u zapećku njihova predškolskog i školskog obrazovanja, stoga je odabir filmova u programskoj sekciјi Mali koraci posebno važan. Atraktivnost, poučnost i razumljivost osnovni su kriteriji po kojima se bira program namijenjen djeci i mladima, a insistira se i na otklonu od dominantnih, uglavnom američkih, filmova za djecu i mlade iz redovite kino distribucije.

SPECTRUM

The Spectrum section presents a selection of trending and noteworthy feature films that deal with the Holocaust, human rights and current social concerns. The Spectrum section screens top production standard films that are both easy to understand and highly appealing, i.e. aimed at a wider audience. During the film selection, special attention was paid to films from the "Big Five" film festivals, awarded at prestigious festivals.

REALITY BITES

It would be hard to imagine The Festival of Tolerance without documentary films. The section known as Reality Bites brings quality, immediacy, moderation and strength to the fore, something a good documentary always does. The objective is to showcase the globality and universality of individual problems.

KEEP IT SHORT

Films with low running time condense emotions, ideas, and visuals into a short but powerful experience, leaving a lasting impression in minutes. Recent years have seen a profusion of films, authors, artistic procedures and approaches to short films, turning them into a true creative jungle that is easy to wade through on your own, because its density and abundance are seductively rich.

SMALL STEPS

Children these days live immersed in a sea of audiovisual content, but they have a chronic lack of guidelines for their consumption. Media literacy is at the core of their preschool and school education, so the films selected for the Small Steps section play a very important role. Their appeal, enlightenment and transparency make the basic selection criteria for a section aimed at children and young people. Great prominence is given to moving away from the dominant, typically American, films for children and youth in regular cinema distribution.

JEDAN ŽIVOT / ONE LIFE

James Hawes

Velika Britanija, Češka, Australija, SAD (United Kingdom, Czech Republic, Australia, USA) / 2023. / 109'

Jedan život istinita je priča o Siru Nicholasu Nickyu Wintonu, mladom brokeru iz Londona kojeg tumači Johnny Flynn, koji je zajedno s Trevorom Chadwickom i Doreen Warriner iz Britanskog odbora za izbjeglice u tadašnjoj Čehoslovačkoj, spasio 669 židovske djece od nacističkih progona u mjesecima prije Drugog svjetskog rata. Winton je posjetio Prag u prosincu 1938. godine i otkrio obitelji koje su, pobegavši pred usponom nacista u Njemačkoj i Austriji, živjele u očajnim uvjetima i pod prijetnjom nacističke invazije. Shvatio je da počinje utrka s vremenom. Koliko djece on i njegov tim mogu spasiti prije no što se granice zatvore?

One Life tells the true story of Sir Nicholas 'Nicky' Winton, a young London broker who, in the months leading up to World War II, rescued 669 predominantly Jewish children from the Nazis. Nicky visited Prague in December 1938 and found families who had fled the rise of the Nazis in Germany and Austria, living in desperate conditions with little or no shelter and food, and under threat of Nazi invasion. He immediately realised it was a race against time. How many children could he and the team rescue before the borders closed?

U RETROVIZORU / IN THE REARVIEW

Maciek Hamela

Poljska, Francuska, Ukrajina (Poland, France, Ukraine) / 2024. / 84'

U retrovizoru je autentično, intimno promatraњe kako se odvija rat, prikaz više generacija ukrajinskih civila kako iznenada napuštaju svoje domove i oslanjaju se na pomoć volonterskog kombija redatelja Macieka Hamele kako bi pobegli od sukoba opasnog po život. Dok vozi kroz minska polja kako bi napustio Ukrajinu i pokušava proći kroz brojne vojne kontrolne točke, Hamela nam nudi mjesto u svojem vozilu, stvarajući dokumentarac za volanom i iza kamere, putujući cestama diljem Ukrajine kako bi sigurno prevezao izbjeglice u Poljsku. Kombi prelazi desetke tisuća kilometara i služi kao čekaonica, bolnica, sklonište te zona povjerenja i ispovijedi slučajno spjenih sunarodnjaka. U retrovizoru je kolektivni portret sastavljen od niza iskustava Ukrajinaca koji dijele isti cilj: pronalazak sigurnog utočišta usred sukoba. U privremenom azilu odobrenom svim putnicima, njihove razlike u spolu, dobi, boji kože, fizičkom stanju, podrijetlu, identitetu, svjetonazorima i vjeri postaju nevažne. Dok sâm rat ostaje u pozadini, njegov odraz i učinak su evidentni i sirovi.

In the Rearview is an authentic, intimate observation of war as it unfolds, following multiple generations of Ukrainian civilians as they abruptly abandon their homes and rely on the help of director Maciek Hamela's volunteer aid van to escape the life-threatening conflict. As he steers through minefields to leave Ukraine and tries to get through numerous military checkpoints, Hamela offers us a seat in his car, guiding the documentary from behind the wheel and behind the camera, crisscrossing the roads of Ukraine to transport uprooted refugees safely to Poland. The van traverses tens of thousands of kilometers and serves as a waiting room, hospital, shelter, and zone for confidences and confessions among compatriots thrown together by chance. In the Rearview is a collective portrait composed of an array of experiences of Ukrainians who share a single goal: finding a safe haven in the throes of conflict. With temporary asylum granted to all passengers, their differences in gender, age, skin tone, physical condition, origin, identity, worldviews and faith become irrelevant. While the war itself remains in the backdrop, its reflection and impact are evident and raw.

ŠEĆERNA TRSKA / SUGARCANE

Emily Kassie, Julian Brave NoiseCat

Kanada, SAD (Canada, USA) / 2024. / 107'

Divno priznanje otpornosti starosjedilačkog stanovništva i njihovu načinu života. Šećerna trska, debitantski dugometražni dokumentarac Juliana Bravea NoiseCata i Emily Kassie, epski je kinematografski portret zajednice u trenutku međunarodnog obračuna. Smješten usred revolucionarne istrage o zlostavljanju i smrti u indijanskom internatu, film osnažuje sudionike da prekinu cikluse međugeneracijske traume putem svjedočenja o bolnim, predugo zanemarivanim istinama, ali i ljubavi koja je unutar njihovih obitelji opstala unatoč razotkrivenom genocidu. Godine 2021. dokazi o neobilježenim grobovima u blizini indijanskog internata koji je vodila Katolička crkva u Kanadi potaknuli su nacionalne prosvjede zbog prisilnog odvajanja, assimilacije i zlostavljanja koje su mnoga djeca doživjela u mreži izdvojenih internata osmišljenih za polagano uništavanje kulture i društvenog tkiva autohtonih zajednica. Kad je Kassie, novinarka i redateljica, zamilila NoiseCata, svojeg starog prijatelja i kolegu, da režira film koji dokumentira istragu Uprave Prvih naroda u Williams Lakeu o Misiji sv. Josipa, nije mogla ni zamisliti koliko je ta priča bila bliska njegovoj obitelji. Tijekom istrage, Emily i Julian proputovali su područjem rijeka, šuma i planina njegova zavičaja kako bi čuli brojne priče preživjelih. Tijekom snimanja, Julianova vlastita priča postala je sastavni dio ovog prekrasnog višeslojnog portreta zajednice. Nudeći prostor, vrijeme i duboku empatiju, redatelji su otkrili ono što je bilo skriveno. Kassie i NoiseCat susreli su se i s izuzetnom bolju koju su te osobe morale potisnuti da bi preživjele i s jedinstvenom ljestvom skupine ljudi koja nalazi snagu da ustraje.

A stunning tribute to the resilience of Native people and their way of life - Sugarcane, the debut feature documentary from Julian Brave NoiseCat and Emily Kassie- is an epic cinematic portrait of a community during a moment of international reckoning. Set amidst a ground-breaking investigation into abuse and death at an Indian residential school, the film empowers participants to break cycles of intergenerational trauma by bearing witness to painful, long-ignored truths – and the love that endures within their families despite the revelation of genocide. In 2021, evidence of unmarked graves near an Indian residential school run by the Catholic Church in Canada sparked a national outcry about the forced separation, assimilation, and abuse many children experienced at this network of segregated boarding schools designed to slowly destroy the culture and social fabric of Indigenous communities. When Kassie - a journalist and filmmaker - asked her old friend and colleague, NoiseCat, to direct a film documenting the Williams Lake First Nation investigation of St Joseph's Mission, she never imagined just how close this story was to his own family. As the investigation continued, Emily and Julian traveled back to the rivers, forests and mountains of his homelands to hear the myriad stories of survivors. During production, Julian's own story became an integral part of this beautiful multi-stranded portrait of a community. By offering space, time, and profound empathy the directors unearthed what was hidden. Kassie and NoiseCat encountered both the extraordinary pain these individuals had to suppress as a tool for survival and the unique beauty of a group of people finding the strength to persevere.

Veljko Popović, Milivoj Popović

Hrvatska, Francuska (Croatia, France) / 2024. / 13'37"

U filmu se nižu uspomene na djetinjstvo u Splitu osamdesetih godina. Prepričavaju se priče nakon nedjeljnog ručka kad su svi dobre vojje, priče pune emocija koje je lako prepoznati. Iznad svega, film je dirljiva posveta ljubavi djeđa i bake koji su davali sve od sebe da njihova unučica ne skida osmijeh s lica.

The film recounts the memories of a childhood in Split in the 1980s. These are stories retold after Sunday lunch when everyone is in a good mood, stories filled with emotions we can easily relate to. But above all, the film is a moving tribute to the love of a grandpa and grandma who did their best to keep their granddaughter smiling.

ŽIVOTINJSKO KRALJEVSTVO / ANIMAL KINGDOM

Thomas Cailley

Francuska, Belgija (France, Belgium) / 2023. / 128'

U bliskoj budućnosti, misteriozni fenomen pogoda čovječanstvo i neobjašnjive mutacije postupno transformiraju dijelove stanovništva u hibride čovjeka i životinje. Ta stvorena mnogi smatraju prijetnjom i šalju ih u specijalizirani centar u pokušaju zaustavljanja daljnjih mutacija i kontroliranja njihove očite sklonosti nasilju. Nakon što se konvoju koji je prevozio hibride na novu lokaciju dogodila nesreća u šumi, lokalnom zajednicom širi se paranoja, a preživjela stvorenja razbjježala su se po divljini. Franćois i njegov 16-godišnji sin Emile kreću u očajničku potragu za njegovom suprugom Lenom koja je nestala nakon nesreće. Franćois ne odustaje od obiteljske prošlosti, no postupno gubi kontrolu nad Emileom, koji je počeo primjećivati transformacije u vlastitom tijelu, što njegovo sudbinu čini sve neizvjesnijom. Međutim, Emile se potajno povezuje sa stvorenjima koja je sreo u šumi i prepoznaje njihovu ljudskost, što zauvjek mijenja njega i njegova oca, dok im se vlasti približavaju.

In the near future, a mysterious phenomenon strikes humanity and unexplained mutations gradually transform parts of the population into human-animal hybrids. The creatures, considered a threat by many, are sent to specialised centre in an attempt to stop their mutations from progressing and to control their apparent violent tendencies.

When a convoy bringing hybrids to a new facility crashes in a forest, paranoia spreads in the local community as the surviving creatures scatter into the wild. Franćois and his 16-year-old son Emile embark on a desperate search for his missing wife Lena who disappeared after the crash. As Franćois clings to the family's past, he progressively loses his grip on Emile, who has started to notice transformations in his own body, leaving his fate increasingly uncertain. But as he secretly bonds with creatures he met in the forest, Emile opens his eyes to their humanity, leaving him and his father forever changed as the authorities close in.

SAD (USA) / 2023. / 27'

Posljednjih godina iz školskih okruga diljem SAD više od 2500 knjiga uklonjeno je ili dobito oznaku zabrane ili ograničenja, te su na taj način postale nedostupne milijunima učenika. Nije slučajnost da se ciljalo na teme koje su uobičajeni žrtveni jaci američke desnice – problematiku LGBTQ+, crnačku povijest i osnaživanje žena – postavivši prepreku mogućnostima budućih generacija da razviju vlastito mišljenje o ključnim društvenim pitanjima.

In recent years, more than 2,500 books have been removed from school districts around the US, labeled as banned, restricted, or challenged, and made unavailable to millions of students. By no accident, the themes targeted are the usual scapegoats of the American Right—LGBTQ+ issues, Black History, and women's empowerment—impeding the power of future generations to develop their own thoughts and opinions on critical social issues.

Kolovoz je 1971. godine. Nogometne ekipe iz Engleske, Argentine, Meksika, Francuske, Danske i Italije okupile su se na suncem okupanom stadionu Azteca u Mexico Cityju. Veličina turnira je monumentalna: izdašno sponzorstvo, iscrpna televizijska pokrivenost, roba na svakom uglu i gomile od preko 100.000 glasnih navijača iz utakmice u utakmicu pretvaraju ovaj povijesni stadion u bučni užareni kotao. Podilazeći mediji igrače tretiraju kao da su rock zvijezde. Atmosfera podsjeća na najveće trenutke međunarodne nogometne povijesti. No ovaj je turnir drukčiji od svih prethodnih. Svi igrači na terenu su žene. I vjerojatno za njega nikad niste čuli. Riječ je o pionirskom neslužbenom Svjetskom prvenstvu za žene, Copa '71. Nisu ga priznali ni vladajuće tijelo ni nacionalni nogometni savezi diljem svijeta, pa je tako ovaj događaj ostao u zapećku povijesti. Sve do sada.

It is August 1971. Soccer teams from England, Argentina, Mexico, France, Denmark, and Italy have gathered at Mexico City's sun-drenched Azteca Stadium. The scale of the tournament is monumental: lavish sponsorship, extensive TV coverage, merchandise on every street corner, and crowds of over 100,000 roaring fans turn this historic stadium into a cauldron of noise match after match. A fawning media treat the players like rock stars. The atmosphere is reminiscent of the greatest moments in international soccer history. But this is a tournament unlike anything that's happened before. The players on the pitch are all women. And it's likely you've never even heard of it. This is Copa '71, the pioneering unofficial Women's World Cup. Dismissed by both the governing body and domestic soccer associations around the world, this event had been sidelined in history. Until now.

999 – ZABORAVLJENE DJEVOJKЕ / 999 – THE FORGOTTEN GIRLS

Heather Dune Macadam, Beatriz Calleja

SAD [USA] / 2023. / 90'

U proljeće 1942. nacisti su slovačkoj vladi na-ređili da im pošalje robovsku radnu snagu, a dobili su 999 židovskih tinejdžerica. Njihova karta za vlak bilo je jednosmjerno putovanje u Auschwitz. Autorica međunarodnog bestsele-ra "999 - Izuzetne mlade žene prvog službenog transporta Židova u Auschwitz" Heather Dune Macadam, debitirajući kao redateljica i producentica, provela je jedanaest godina intervjuirajući diljem svijeta preživjele iz prvog transporta. Temeljen na obiteljskim i državnim arhivima, 999 objelodanjuje revolucionarno istraživanje koje ovu neispričanu priču otkriva iz potpuno ženske perspektive. One koje su preživjele izdržale su više od tri godine u logorima smrti i nameću nam pitanje: zašto su djevojke bile prve na meti?

In the spring of 1942, the Nazis ordered the Slovak government to send a slave labor force and received 999 teenage, Jewish girls. Their railway ticket was a one-way trip to Auschwitz. First-time Director/Producer and author of the international bestselling book, 999: The Extraordinary Young Women of the First Official Jewish Transport to Auschwitz, Heather Dune Macadam spent eleven years interviewing survivors of the first transport all over the world. Digging through family and government archives, 999 uncovers groundbreaking research that reveals this untold story from an entirely female perspective. Those who survived endured more than three years in the death camps and beg us to ask the question: Why were girls targeted first?

TRANZICIJA / TRANSITION

Jordan Bryon, Monica Villamizar

SAD (USA) / 2023. / 99'

Australski novinar i filmski producent Jordan Bryon dobiva nevjerojatan pristup talibanskoj jedinici tijekom pada Afganistana. Tranzicija zemlje poklapa se s njegovom vlastitom fizičkom transformacijom kao trans muškarca. Dok on i njegov lokalni snimatelj Teddy rade među talibanim, Jordan skriva svoju fiziologiju i prihvaćaju ga kao muškarca. Međutim, ako bi talibani razotkrili njegovu tajnu, on i Teddy bi vjerojatno bili u smrtnoj opasnosti. Jordan se bori s moralnim i etičkim dilemama koje nameće njegova jedinstvena situacija. Film prati Jordanovo putovanje dok tijekom tranzicije paradoksalno zadobiva više slobode, vješto bilježeći sve veće ugnjetavanje žena za vrijeme talibanske tranzicije na vlast.

Australian journalist and filmmaker Jordan Bryon gains incredible access to a Taliban unit during the fall of Afghanistan. The country's transition coincides with his own physical transformation as a trans man. While he and his local videographer, Teddy, embed with the Taliban, Jordan conceals his physiology and is accepted as a man. However, if the Taliban were to find out his secret, he and Teddy would likely be in grave danger. Jordan struggles with the moral and ethical dilemmas that come with his unique situation. The film follows Jordan's journey, as he paradoxically gains more freedom as he transitions, while deftly chronicling the increasing oppression of women as the Taliban transitions to power.

TOLERANCE TALK RASPRAVE

TOLERANCE TALKS

Pored filmskog programa, kroz Tolerance Talk rasprave ponovno otvaramo nove/stare teme za raspravu koje nam približava upravo najveća, najblišnja većini nas, sedma umjetnost. Film je snažno sredstvo koje naše strahove, strasti i nelagode može odvojiti od nas samih kako bismo se s njima lakše suočili i o njima razgovarali. Aktualni društveni događaji sve više ukazuju na potrebu za progovaranjem i uspostavom dijaloga među suprotstavljenim stranama te suradnjom cijele zajednice u borbi protiv diskriminacije i predrasuda.

Ovogodišnje izdanje Festivala tolerancije u Zadru otvara polarizirajuće, ali za zajednicu važne teme u formatu strukturiranih rasprava, koje su vezane uz filmove koji će se prikazati u programskim sekcijama. Govornici na Tolerance Talk raspravama vodeći su stručnjaci i osobe s ogromnim iskustvom u područjima o kojima govore. U diskusijama i na okruglim stolovima uz stručnjake iz relevantnih društvenih područja sudjeluje i publiku, kao važan faktor u kreiranju javnog mnjenja. Razgovarat ćemo o porukama vezanim uz zaštitu osoba s međunarodnom zaštitom te o izazovima u prevenciji vršnjačkog nasilja. Razgovori su otvoreni i za publiku, a svrha im je promicanje tolerancije i inkluzije.

In addition to the film program, Tolerance Talk enables us to reopen both new and old topics to discuss that are brought closer to us by the greatest, closest to most of us, the seventh art. Film is a powerful tool that can detach us from our own fears, passions and discomforts so that we can face them more easily and talk about them. Current social issues increasingly point to the need to speak out and establish a dialogue between opposing parties and community-wide cooperation in the fight against discrimination and prejudice.

This year's edition of the Festival of Tolerance in Zadar opens polarizing, but important topics for the community in the form of structured discussions, which are related to the films that will be shown in the program sections. Speakers at Tolerance Talks are leading experts and people with vast experience in the areas they talk about. Along with experts from relevant social fields, the audience also takes part in debates and round tables as a crucial factor in creating public opinion. We will discuss messages regarding the integration of persons with international protection and challenges in the prevention of peer violence. The talks are also open to the public, and their purpose is to promote tolerance and inclusivity.

Ljudi koji bježe od ratova, nasilja i proganjanja sve je više. I dalje se suočavaju s neprihvataljivim rizicima i otporima u mnogim dijelovima svijeta dok pokušavaju doći do sigurnosti. Zajedno bismo trebali graditi bolje društvo za sve nas i nastaviti uklanjati barijere. Talenti, vještine i iskustva izbjeglica mogu doprinijeti i našem društvu. Onima koji imaju vještine i kvalifikacije trebalo bi omogućiti da ih i koriste. Izbjeglice imaju potencijal da daju doprinos društvima u kojima žive, a integracija migrantima i izbjeglicama omogućuje neovisnost u novom društvu te im pruža mogućnost da postanu punopravni članovi. Uz to postavlja obvezu poštivanja temeljnih vrijednosti društva u koje dolaze. Kako se osjećaju izbjeglice u Hrvatskoj? Koji su izazovi prihvata izbjeglica? Što možemo učiniti kako bi postali društvo dobrodošlice? Odgovore na ova i druga pitanja donosimo u Tolerance Talk raspravi u kojoj svoja iskustva donose izbjeglice, ali i osobe s iskustvom rada s izbjeglicama.

Program se održava uz potporu

There are more and more people fleeing wars, violence and persecution. They continue to face unacceptable risks and resistance in many parts of the world as they try to reach safety. Together we should build a better society for all of us and keep on breaking down barriers. The talents, skills and experiences of refugees can also contribute to our society. Those who have expertise and qualifications should be able to use them. Refugees have the potential to contribute to the societies they live in, and integration allows migrants and refugees to be independent in a new society and gives them the opportunity to become full members. In addition, it also imposes the obligation to respect the fundamental values of the society they come to. How do refugees feel in Croatia? What are the challenges of accepting refugees? What can we do to become a welcoming society? We provide answers to these and other questions in the Tolerance Talk where refugees share their own experiences, as well as people who share their experience of working with refugees.

The program is held with the support

Nasilje je vrlo kompleksan problem. Djeca u školi, ali i izvan nje, mogu biti uzastopno i sustavno uznemiravana i napadana od strane svojih vršnjaka. Često se problem umanjuje ili ignorira prebacujući odgovornost na nekog drugog. Danas nasilje izaziva pojačanu zabrinutost, ne samo u školama već i u obiteljima diljem svijeta. To nije ni nova ni nepoznata pojava. Nasilju je izložen prevelik broj djece, a sama okrutnost nasilja se povećava što dovodi do posljedica na zdravlje i dobrobit djece. U današnje, "brzo" vrijeme, roditelji, odnosno obitelj, često ne posvećuju dovoljno vremena i truda kako bi uistinu sudjelovali u odgoju svoga djeteta. Vrlo često tu ulogu preuzima okolina ili mediji. U svemu tome niti škola ne može biti izolirana. Kako se škole, učitelji i stručni suradnici suočavaju s problemom nasilja među vršnjacima? Kojim aktivnostima se provode takvi programi? Tko su sudionici, kolika je uključenost i zainteresiranost roditelja i učenika? Koje su poteškoće prilikom provedbe te koji su prijedlozi bolje učinkovitosti i kontinuiranog provođenja preventivnih programa? Ovo su pitanja na koja ćemo pokušati pronaći odgovor na Tolerance Talk raspravi u Zadru sa stručnjacima iz područja prevencije vršnjačkog nasilja.

Program se održava uz potporu Kontakt točke programa Građani, jednakost, prava i vrijednosti (CERV), Ured za udruge Vlade RH.

Violence is a very complex problem. Children in school, but also outside of it, can be repeatedly and systematically bullied and attacked by their peers. The problem is often downplayed or ignored by shifting the responsibility to someone else. These days violence is causing increased concern, not only in schools but also in families around the world. This is neither a new nor an unknown phenomenon. Too many children are exposed to violence, and the cruelty of violence itself is rising, which negatively impacts children's health and well-being. In today's fast-paced world, parents and families often do not devote enough time and effort to active engagement in the upbringing of their children. This role is quite frequently taken over by the environment or the media. Even school cannot be isolated from all of this. How do schools, teachers and expert advisors deal with the problem of peer violence? What activities are used to carry out such programs? Who are the participants, what is the involvement and interest of parents and students? What are the difficulties in program implementation and what are the suggestions for achieving better efficiency and for running prevention programs continuously? These are the questions we will try to answer with experts in the field of peer violence prevention at the Tolerance talk in Zadar.

The program is held with the support of National Contact Point of the Citizens, Equality, Rights and Values (CERV) Program, Government Office for Cooperation with NGOs.

MODERATORICA: Danijela Kvesić Stojanac

Na prvom izdanju Festivala tolerancije u Zadru donosimo program Edukacijska jutra kojemu je cilj približiti mladima tragedije Holokausta na njima razumljiv način, kroz blizak im filmski medij te uz svjedočanstvo osoba koje su u njihovim godinama bile diskriminirane i zatočene samo zbog svojeg podrijetla. Vrijednost Edukacijskih jutara veća je budući da je svake godine među nama sve manje živućih koji su preživjeli Holokaust, a onih koji prepričavaju mladima svoja iskustva, još i manje.

Nakon filma Jedan život, učenici će imati priliku iz prve ruke čuti svjedočanstvo preživjele Holokausta, Vesne Domany Hardy. Ona je povjesničarka umjetnosti, prevoditeljica i novinarka, još od sedamdesetih godina prošlog stoljeća kao supruga Britanca Malcolma Hardya, zaposlenog u British Councilu, živjela je u Pakistanu, Francuskoj i Italiji. Od devedesetih živi u Londonu, gdje kao nezavisna novinarka piše za različite židovske časopise.

Program se održava uz potporu Veleposlanstva Ujedinjene Kraljevine Velike Britanije i Sj. Irske u Republici Hrvatskoj.

The first edition of the Festival of Tolerance in Zadar presents the Educational Mornings program, which aims to bring young people closer to the tragedies of the Holocaust in a way that they can understand. This is achieved through the medium of film to which they can relate and with the testimony of people who were discriminated against at their age and imprisoned only because of their ethnic origin. The value of Educational Mornings is increasing since every year there are fewer and fewer living Holocaust survivors among us, and even fewer of those willing to share their experiences with young people.

After the film screening of One Life, students will have a first-hand opportunity to hear the Holocaust survivor testimony given by Vesna Domana Hardy. She is an art historian, translator and journalist, and has lived in Pakistan, France and Italy since the 1970s as the wife of Malcolm Hardy from Britain, an employee of the British Council. Since the 1990s, she has been living in London, where she writes as a freelance journalist for various Jewish magazines.

The program is held with the support of the Embassy of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland in the Republic of Croatia.

Program je namijenjen razvijanju empatije, solidarnosti, ali i kritičkog razmišljanja kod djece i mladih, kako bi se mlade potaknulo na angažman protiv predrasuda. Više od polovice svjetskih izbjeglica su djeca. Mnogi će cijelo djetinjstvo provesti daleko od kuće, ponekad odvojeni od obitelji. Neki među njima su preživjeli nasilje, zlostavljanje, zanemarivanje, iskorištavanje, bili žrtve trgovine ljudima ili vojnog retrutiranja, bilo da je to bio razlog zbog kojega su bili prisiljeni pobjeći ili su tome bili izloženi na putu do sigurnosti. Što za njih znači biti izbjeglica? Kakvo je njihovo iskustvo izbjeglih osoba u Hrvatskoj? Zašto nam je izazovno prihvatići drugo i drugačije? I najvažnije – što možemo učiniti kako bismo pružili dobrodošlicu i olakšali uključivanje u lokalnu zajednicu djeci izbjeglicama koje u Hrvatskoj ponovno izgrađuju svoje živote? Ovo su pitanja o kojima će tijekom edukacije na temu integracije izbjeglica svoja razmišljanja podijeliti tinejdžerice s iskustvom izbjeglištva te Monika Čavlović, savjetnica pučke pravobraniteljice.

The program aims to develop empathy and solidarity, as well as critical thinking in children and young people, to encourage them to stand up against prejudice. More than half of the world's refugees are children. Many will spend their entire childhood far away from home, sometimes separated from their families. Some of them have survived violence, abuse, neglect, exploitation, human trafficking or military recruitment. This was either the reason why they were forced to flee or they were subjected to it on their way to safety. What does being a refugee mean to them? What is their experience of forcibly displaced people in Croatia? Why is it challenging for us to accept the other and the different? And most importantly – what can we do to welcome and facilitate integration in the local community for forcibly displaced children who are rebuilding their lives in Croatia? These are the questions that will be addressed by teenagers with refugee experience and Monika Čavlović, advisor to the Ombudsman, as they share their thoughts on the topic of refugee integration during the educational program.

The program is held with support by UNHCR Croatia.

Salaam Film & Dialog is a year-round film festival aimed at children and young people, which through film screenings and workshops seeks to open a dialogue on global topics such as climate, minority rights – ethnic, religious and sexual, reducing inequalities between the Global South and the Global North, respecting diversity and the right to be different.

The films in their program emphasize interculturality, climate and the UN's global goals.

Salaam Film & Dialog has just celebrated its 20th anniversary. Their professional speakers, who often have personal experiences related to the topics and issues raised by the film, talk to the audience after the screenings about prejudices, stereotypes and taboos in society and the world that surrounds us. The program includes films intended for all age groups, from pre-school to secondary school age. Salaam's digital platform offers teaching materials with additional information, exercises and tasks, which allow teachers to take the conversations started in the cinema hall to their classrooms.

At the Festival of Tolerance, they are presenting the film Island of Hope, which tells the story of young refugee men who came to a small Danish island to wait for an asylum decision. It is a heartwarming film that shows the universal need of all people to be seen and accepted.

Otok nade topla je i ganutljiva priča o širokom krugu ljudi čije živote, misli i odnose susret sa strancima dirne i stavi na kušnju. Što se događa kad 200 dječaka, tražitelja azila, dođe na mali danski otok Ærø i počne komunicirati s lokalnim stanovništvom? Otočani su zabrinuti i uplašeni da je otok premalen za tako veliku skupinu stranaca. Redateljica Helle Toft Jensen živi na Ærøu i svojom je kamerom šest godina pratila njihovu interakciju te nam prenijela prekrasnu priču u kojoj se odigravaju dirljivi i potresni trenuci te se stvaraju prijateljstva za cijeli život.

Island of Hope is a warm and moving story about a diverse group of people whose lives, thoughts, and relationships are touched and tested by their encounters with strangers. What happens when 200 boys, asylum seekers, arrive on the small Danish island of Ærø and begin interacting with the local population? The islanders are worried and fearful that the island may be too small for such a large group of strangers. Director Helle Toft Jensen, who lives on Ærø, followed their interactions with her camera for six years, bringing us a beautiful story filled with touching and emotional moments, where lifelong friendships are formed.

RAFF – RAB FILM FESTIVAL

RAFF – RAB FILM FESTIVAL

RAFF je festival istraživačkog filma, po prvi je put održan na otoku Rabu od 23. do 27. kolovoza 2019. Organizatori festivala su Pučko otvoreno učilište Rab, Grad Rab i Toro Laboratorij j.d.o.o. iz Zagreba. U svojih sada već šest izdanja, RAFF je u svoj program integrirao nekoliko bitnih elemenata koji čine cjelovit i atraktivan kulturni i turistički proizvod – film, glazbu, gastronomiju, znanje i nova iskustva. Poseban segment programa koji čini važan iskorak iz uobičajenih festivalskih sadržaja je SEAPLEX KAICH – kino i koncert na barkama. Program se provodi uz potporu Sarajevo Film Festivala, kroz suradnju u programu Dealing With The Past. Formatiran kao boutique festival, s 13 do 15 filmova, gledateljima daje svojevrsnu selekcijsku garanciju da birajući bilo koji film iz programa neće pogriješiti. Rast broja gledatelja kroz godine, koji je polako dosegnuo 5000 gledatelja potvrđuje dobar smjer programskog usmjerenja ovog festivala.

RAFF is a festival of investigative films, held for the first time on the island of Rab from 23 to 27 August 2019. The organizers of the festival are the Rab Open University, the City of Rab and Toro Laboratory from Zagreb. All six editions of the Rab Film Festival have integrated several important elements into their programs that make up a full-fledged and attractive cultural and tourist product – film, music, gastronomy, knowledge and new experiences. A unique section of the program that makes an important step forward from the usual festival content is Seaplex Kaich, allowing visitors to sail into the cinema and attend concerts on their own boats. The program is conducted with the support of the Sarajevo Film Festival, through cooperation in the Dealing With The Past program. The boutique festival format with 13 to 15 films gives viewers a kind of selection guarantee that they will not make a mistake when choosing any film from the program. The number of visitors has steadily increased, reaching 5000, which confirms that the festival's program is headed in the right direction.

Film: NEBO IZNAD ZENICE / THE SKY ABOVE ZENICA

Zlatko Pranjić, Nanne Frank Møller

Danska, Bosna i Hercegovina, (Denmark, Bosnia and Herzegovina) / 2024 / 90'

U središtu Europe, jedan od najzagadenijih gradova u svijetu ujedinio je svoje građane u zajedničkoj borbi za održivu budućnost. Ali novac, moć i ekološka politika pokazali su se jednakom otrovnim protivnicima kao i tvorničkim koji im odnosi živote.

In the center of Europe, one of the world's most polluted cities has united its citizens in a common fight for a viable future. But money, power and environmental politics prove to be as toxic an opponent as the factory smoke that is claiming their lives.
